

HUNTINGDON VALLEY LIBRARY PRESENTS SUMMER READING 2009

“BE CREATIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY”

Children from preschool through 7th grade can join the library’s summer reading program. Signup begins at the library as soon as school ends. Begin reading and fill in your reading records whenever you come into the library. Read whenever and wherever...home, camp...vacation...and join us when you can!

At the end of the summer, prizes will be given in top readers in each grade at the library’s annual party in August and certificates will be awarded to every child who has read ten books or more.

In addition---all Summer long we will be celebrating YOUR creative side---Original paintings, poems, photos and crafts will be displayed throughout the library all summer. Get Ready...Get Set---GO! We all look forward to seeing YOUR special something here at the library.

Every Tuesday night we’ll celebrate reading with “Tuesday Nites at the Library”---starting each week at 7:00 PM.

These entertainments are planned for the Readers from Kindergarten. Through 7th grades.

- June 30th A wonderful “OneManSideShow,” featuring David Smith!
- July 7th “Two of a Kind” –Music and more with Jenny and David!
- July 14th Duet Productions presents “The Wizard of Oz”
- July 21st “The Great Holzie”—voted Philadelphia’s best comic for kids!
- July 28th Picarillo Sciencetelling—prepare to be amazed!
- Aug. 4th The Magic of Kyle and Kelly—for your entertainment!
- Aug. 11th Awards and party for prizes for readers of 10 or more books!